DELAWARE, Oh., May 22, 2009 – The Delaware County Safe Communities Coalition and local law enforcement chiefs gathered recently to kick off the “Click It or Ticket” campaign promoting seat belt usage.

Vince and Larry, the famous crash test dummies, joined Delaware County law enforcement leaders outside the Rutherford B. Hayes Building recently to kick off the “Click It or Ticket” campaign promoting seat belt usage. The Ohio Highway Patrol, the Delaware County Sheriff’s Office, and the Delaware, Genoa Township, Powell, and Westerville police departments participated. Unbelted motorists are among the significant causes of highway deaths and serious injuries here, according to the Delaware County Safe Communities Coalition of the Delaware General Health District.
