DELAWARE, Oh., Oct. 11, 2011 – A number of pupils at Delaware’s Woodward Elementary School observed International Walk to School Day last week with this foot procession before school. Delaware Police oversaw the walk, and Principal Matthew Keller joined several Woodward staff members and adult volunteers to escort the children. The Walk to School activity was organized by the school with help from police and the Delaware General Health District to encourage physical activity, pedestrian safety, and healthy lifestyles in the Woodward neighborhoods.
