DELAWARE, Oh., Jan. 30, 2012 – Breast Cancer Awareness is the topic of the Delaware General Health District’s next “Health Talk” coming up at the Center for Older Adults of Delaware County.

Connie Frambes R.N. of the Health District Nursing Staff will discuss various aspects of breast cancer, including screening for early detection. Admission is free, and everyone is encouraged to attend. The Health Talk is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 8, at 10:30 a.m. in the Center at 800 Cheshire Road, Delaware.

Breast cancer accounts for nearly one in three cancer cases among American women. Preventing chronic diseases including cancer is a priority for the Delaware Board of Health.
