DELAWARE, Oh., Oct. 3, 2011 – The Delaware General Health District’s Office of Vital Statistics will be closed from noon to 1 p.m. weekdays beginning Wednesday, October 5, until completion of the Health District elevator replacement project.

The Vital Statistics office, which issues birth and death certificates, temporarily is operating in the lobby of the Health District Clinic at 3 W. Winter St. while the elevator work proceeds in the Health District’s other downtown building. The elevator project is to be completed in about two months. At that time, Vital Statistics will return to the second floor of 1 W. Winter St. and noon-hour service will resume.

The Vital Statistics office also will be closed on Wednesday, Oct. 12, while staff attends a conference.

The Health District regrets any inconveniences caused by the closures. For additional information phone 740-368-1700.
