Special Wastes

Appliances can be taken to Sims Recycling & Friction Metals. They will pay for appliances but cannot accept appliances with tampered freon lines. The Delaware County Solid Waste Transfer Station accepts non-freon appliances at no charge. Call Keep Delaware County Beautiful to ask about seasonal drop offs.

Automobiles may be donated to charity or recycled at Sims. Visit Charity Watch or IRS websites for donating tips.

Batteries (lead acid) should be traded in at the retailer or taken to the Transfer Station or Sims Recycling. Rechargeables can be taken to Batteries Plus (614) 396-5490 or Home Depot Stores. Household (alkaline) batteries may be taken to Household Hazardous Waste drop offs. Tape terminals & place in airtight plastic bag for safety.

Cell Phones and peripherals may be taken to the Columbus Zoo, Sims Recycling, Delaware County Victims Services or Sheriff’s Office.

Electronics are accepted at Best Buy, Staples, or Accurate IT at www.aite-recycle.com . See table for TVs.

Gasoline & Kerosene can be taken to Central Ohio Oil, 795 Marion Rd. in Columbus, 614-443-9738.

Household Hazardous Waste Drop Offs are held in two of the District’s 4 counties each year. Latex paint is accepted for a fee. To learn how to dry paint or find out about drop offs, contact Keep Delaware County Beautiful. Call EEL at 614-294-1300 for year-round pay to dispose program.

Light Bulbs Compact Fluorescent bulbs can be taken to Batteries Plus Bulbs, Lowes, & Menards. Menards accepts tubes only if customer is buying replacements. Fluorescents are accepted at household hazardous waste drop-off days.

Motor Oil can be taken to TSC, Auto Zone, Wal-Mart Tire & Lube in Delaware or Lewis Center or ask your service station.

Tires should be traded in when new tires are purchased. Take tires to the Delaware County Solid Waste Transfer Station (740-369-7700) or Liberty Tire Service of Ohio (614-871-8097) for a fee. The DKMM Solid Waste District accepts tires at its two Tire and Electronic drop offs for a fee.

Yard Waste can be taken to Price Farms Organics, (740-362-4838), 4838 Warrensburg Rd. (residents of the DKMM Solid Waste District may bring yard trimmings at no charge), Mulch 1st (www.mulch1st.com) or Ohio Mulch www.ohiomulch.com.
